DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

Deservedly the most popular remedy ever known in America!

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The following recommendation is from Dr Jacob Myers:

Extract of a letter from Dr Jacob Myers.

"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam has been sold in this country for two years, and the medicine has gained an uncommon celebrity, for it scarcely in one instance failed of having the desired effect. I am by no means in favor of the many nostrums, most of which are impositions upon a credulous public but that which I know by experience to be effectual, I cannot help but give my approbation thereto. A counterfeit preparation has been offered here by a travelling agent of Comstock, N. Y, and there is also another article vended here that is strongly suspected to be spurious.

JACOB MYERS, M D.

Mifflinton, Juniata co, Penn May 3, 1837"

 Many new and highly interesting certificates may be examined on the bill of directions.

☞ There are many counterfeit preparations, assuming wholly or in part the name of the original and true V P. Balsam.

The true article is signed Sampson Reed, on the label to each bottle. Price 50 cts.

BANGOR,

MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1837.

LATER FROM CANADA. Another Battle. We learn by a gentleman who passed through our city, on Saturday, to New Brunswick, from Montreal, which place he left on the 25th ult. (one day later than our previous accounts,) that news reached Montreal, just before he left, of an engagement between the Revolutionists who had taken possession of St. Charles, and the Queen's troops which had been sent out to dislodge them. Report said that six hundred had fallen on both sides. Neither party could claim a victory. It was expected that the contest would be renewed the next day.

Great alarm and gloom prevailed at Montreal. All business was at a stand, and the stores generally closed. At Quebec, there had been some disturbance and riots. The Government were taking meaures to place the city in a more complete state of defence. The gates at the entrance of the Upper Town were closed every night at 8 o'clock. A new guard house is to be built, additional sentries are placed at St. John's gate, and the guns commanding the principal entrances are remounted. Preparations are making to sustain an attack or siege.

This gentleman informs us that the authorities, being unable to await the result of the negotiations at Washington, for permission to march their troops through our territory, have ordered them to proceed from New Brunswick, through the woods. They have contracted for large supplies of snow-shoes for the use of the soldiers.

The Election in Mississippi, has probably resulted in the election of a Van Buren Governor by a small plurality of the votes. There were unfortunately two Whig candidates in the field. The combined Whig vote exceeds the Van Buren by several thousand. In thirteen counties, the congressional vote stands, for Prentiss and Ward, six thousand! for Gholson and Claiborne, fourteen hundred!

NEW YORK ELECTION.

The New York Spectator publishes a table showing the numbers of votes given for Senators in the different counties of the state, at the elections in 1836 and 1837. By this it appears that the whole number of votes in 1836 was 301,491 in 1837, 296,553 decrease 4,938. In 1836 the aggregate whig votes were 134,352; in 1837, 155,883 increase 21,531. The Van Buren votes in 1836 were 167,139; this year 140,670 decrease 26,469. The V. B. majority last year was 32,787 the whig majority this year 15,213.

This statement shows about the same relative change in New York, that had taken place in Maine.

NEW HAMPSHIRE. The democrats of Concord are to "open the ball" on the 9th of December, by a great meeting at Gass's Hall.

[Eastern Argus.

And the "Whigs" of the State are to "lead off" in the closing figure, in the month of March, by a greater meeting at the ballot box.

The editor of the Richmond Enquirer says "Our maxim is, No National Bank; now and never."

[Argus.

"Never no National Bank" is just what we say. Which we understand to mean, construed according to its grammatical construction, "Always a National Bank."

RESIGN. In reply to the many flattering invitations to Mr. Cambreleng (the representative from the city of N. Y.) to resign, he says he is compelled to retain his seat in order to explain Mr. Woodbury's reports, as no one else understands them.

THANKSGIVING. The Governor of Indiana has appointed the first Thursday in December as a day of Coneral Thanksgiving in the State, it having "been represented to him that such was the desire of the religious community."

The private journal kept by the Hon John Q. Adams, from early youth up to the present time, is said to fill upwards of seventy large quarto volumes.

Jesse Brown, has been tried at Portland, on a charge of murdering his wife, and acquitted. The trial lasted several days, and excited much interest.

A THANKSGIVING PRESENT. A friend writes us from Waltham, says the Boston Transcript, that Mr. Mason, a citizen of that flourishing town, received from his lady this morning a present of three fine boys.

NEUTRALITY. The Louisville Evening Herald "a neutral paper" thus discourses upon the difficulties of its position in these piping times of Whig victories, and on the general merits and advantages of neutrality.

"We find it a hard matter to fill up our paper with neutrality. Our exchanges are made up of nothing but "The New York Election," and exultations for the victory. We are beginning to think it a sad affair to be neutral these times, and have a strong inclination to throw up our cap and give "three times three," if it were only for sympathy's sake. This thing of "sittin' on a rail" is not what it's cracked up to be. We'll have to jump on one side or the other and that's certain. Like poor Pat with his arms pinioned and gazing at a riot, we are ready to exclaim, "Och! Och! bother, bother, sich an illegant bit of a row and I have got the darbies on!"

Office of the Chronicle,
Mobile, Nov. 13.

LATE FROM HAVANA. The schr. Bonny Boat arrived at the wharf yesterday, in six days passage from Havana, but unfortunately brought no papers. We learn verbally, from Capt Thompson, that all was tranquil in Cuba, and business rather dull. Lumber, however, was in demand. New coffee was coming in, and selling from eight to nine cents. On the 11th, the U. S. ship of war Vandalia, hove to off Havana and sent a boat in.

SCENES OF YESTERDAY.

Grand Illumination—a Gale—Inundation—Loss of Life—Destruction of Property.

Rarely, in the annals of our city, have so many important events been crowded into so short a space, as those which have occurred in the last twenty-four hours. The morning was warm, but lowering, yet the firing of cannon commenced, and was kept up with spirit, and the preparations went on with vigor for the illuminations in the evening. Toward noon, however, the rain poured down in torrents. Previous to this the wind had been in the south-east, and a fleet of nearly 50 sail went up the lake, in beautiful style. About 1 o'clock the wind chopped round into the south-west, and there appeared to be a prospect of a pleasant evening; but those who were acquainted with these matters, from the swell of the lake, and the rapid rise of water, predicted the gale, which commenced blowing with all its fury, as soon as night set in.

Darkness had hardly closed around us, when the city was again in a blaze of light from the splendid illuminations in every quarter. Tar barrels were burnt, bands of music patrolled the streets, cannon were fired, and rockets sent blazing through the air.

All this time the wind was increasing in fury, till people could hardly keep their footing in the streets and the water rising to an unprecedented height about the docks, and lower part of the city. Amid the roar of the winds and waves, were heard the shrieks of drowning women and men struggling with the rising waters, and little children waked from their warm pillows by the flood, from which, amid the storm and darkness, there was no escape. These persons resided in some miserable shells of buildings on the exposed neck of land between the creek and lake.

The Common Council of the city directed two years ago, that no houses should be erected there unless they were based on good brick or stone foundations at least 8 feet high. The title to the land is disputed in many instances, and temporary buildings have been put up on blocks at the four corners, and several families had gone into them for the sake of obtaining possession. It has been a wonder that they would risk their lives in such frail tenements, for from their appearance one would imagine that a common wind would prostrate them.

Some of these this morning were floating about the harbor, while here and there lie the broken fragments of those that were not strong enough to resist the force of the inundation. Some ten or twelve houses part of them uninhabited were washed completely from their foundations across the creek, and are now strewed about in every direction. Several vessels were stranded high and dry, upon the beach. The schr. Edward Bancroft lays up in the centre of Ohio street. She even dragged her anchor some distance up into the city. The steam ferry boat lies high aground and considerably damaged. The O. P. Starkie, the Brandywine, and the Texas, schooners, were driven on shore, but not materially damaged.

The loss of life the most dreadful portion of the catastrophe cannot at present be ascertained. Five bodies have been brought to the watch-house, but many probably are not discovered. These are two children of John Germain, a young man name unknown, the wife of William Judson, and a colored woman. Wm. Judson lived in a house near the stone building, foot of Mechanic street. When his house was destroyed, his two children were in bed, and have not yet been found. He and his wife got on the canal bridge, where she perished of the cold, and he escaped by swimming to a pile of boards, from which he was rescued. We saw him this morning, wrapped in a quilt, looking among the wreck of his dwelling which had floated into the canal, for the bodies of his children.

Many other vessels, steamboats, &c., are more or less damaged, as well as most of the warehouses on the docks. The loss of property is difficult to estimate. It is strewed in every direction. About twenty-five buildings such as we have described, were either totally destroyed, or torn from their foundations by the flood.

Several vessels and steamboats must have been on the lake, where it was hardly possible for any thing to live. It is rumored that the Cleaveland went down the river, and is safe. We wait anxiously for farther particulars.

P. S. The New England steamboat came in this morning. Reports—left the Cleaveland at 2 P. M. yesterday, in company with the Constitution; the latter not yet heard from. The New England rode out the gale without damage. The schr Jas. G. King came in last night. She reports schooners Panama, Virginia, Favorite, and Brandywine outside. The latter beached—the rest have not yet been heard from.

A woman in one of the houses clung to the window sill, with the water up to her chin, and supported her three children, who clung to her back—but these one after another dropped off—the last but a short time before aid reached her, at 4 o'clock this morning.

Another woman came safely across the creek on a stick of timber, with her infant in her arms.

A man left his family on the roof of his house, and swam for a boat to take them off. It was the last he ever knew of them.

"I thought thy bridal-bed to have decked."

A WEDDING AND A FUNERAL. Rarely does it fall to our lot to record a more remarkable act of Providence, than that of which we are now called to speak. We yesterday announced the marriage of the sister of our friend Alderman Peters, at his own house, and this day we record the death of his estimable wife—a lady beloved by all her acquaintances for her domestic virtues and other excellent qualities—an event, as we are informed, almost coincident with the marriage. She was in her accustomed health and spirits, during the morning, and after the marriage ceremony was engaged in putting up parcels of the wedding-cake for her friends. Feeling suddenly ill, she went to her bed, and as she rested her head upon her pillow expired! The coincidence is as touching as the bereavement will be deeply felt by her numerous family and friends. How sudden the transition! A cypress wreath for the wedding garland! The theme is one for the muse of Mrs. Sigourney. [Com. Advertiser.

FIRE AT GLOUCESTER. We learn from Mr. Briggs, that on Tuesday morning, a large wooden building on Eastern point, belonging to Gardner Greenleaf, was destroyed by fire. It was insured at Gloucester for twenty-five hundred dollars, but the loss is much more.

[Boston Centinel.

FIRE AT SUFFIELD. We learn that the dwelling occupied by Mr. David Hale and son, in Suffield, was consumed by fire on Saturday evening last, about 9 o'clock. A son of Mr. John Hale, about 4 years old, was burnt to death in the flames. The fire originated in the room where the child was asleep.

[From the St. Louis Republican.]

State House Burnt—Part of the State Library and all the rolls and papers in the office of the Secretary of State destroyed.

On Wednesday last the State House in the city of Jefferson was burnt down. The fire, as we learn from a letter, written by a gentleman of that place on Thursday morning, is supposed to have been communicated by a brand from the fire in the room occupied as the office of the Secretary of State, (which is in the northwest corner of the building on the second story.) rolling down on the floor. The fire was discovered about half past nine in the evening, but had advanced too far to be stopped. All the papers in the office of the Secretary of State were destroyed, and about half the State Library, which was kept in the adjoining room on the same floor. The Auditor of Public Accounts occupied the two rooms immediately under the Secretary's room and the Library, and we are gratified to learn, that nearly all the papers in his office were saved. The burning continued until about 12 o'clock in the night, when the roof fell in and the flames subsided. We have not learned that any blame is attached to those having the custody of the Secretary's office. No one lodged in that room and it had been closed for the night. This house was originally built for the residence of the Governor, but had been used of late for the State House. Except the loss of the papers, the other is but small, the house not being worth more than about $12,000.

LOSS OF THE STEAMBOAT CEYLON.

On Wednesday night last, the steamer Ceylon left Louisville for New Orleans, about dark, having on board about 300 passengers, a valuable cargo, and a number of horses. About 10 o'clock at night the boat was discovered to be on fire, and shortly afterwards the flames burst out of the hold where it originated. Whether communicated from the fire under the boilers or in some other manner we have not learned. It was found impossible to run her ashore when first discovered, and she was run the whole length of Salt river reach, a distance of about 22 miles, in a complete sheet of flames, when she was run ashore with admirable skill by the pilot. A gravel bar on each side of the river prevented her being run on shore sooner. As soon as she was made fast, the passengers all got ashore safe, not a single life having been lost. The boat, cargo and baggage of the passengers were totally lost. We however understand that the horses on board were saved. The passengers give great credit to Captain HALY and his crew for the manner in which they conducted themselves during the trying period.

The Ceylon was one of the most splendid passenger boats on the Western waters, about 300 tons burthen, and only 6 months old. She was partly owned at Pittsburg, and the remainder in this city. She was estimated at $30,000, $20,000 of which was insured—$10,000 by the Firemen's and $10,000 by the Beaver insurance offices of Pittsburgh, Pa.

PENNSYLVANIA FINANCES. The receipts in the treasury of the State of Pennsylvania for the year ending Oct. 31, were $6,069,276 47. The balance in the treasury at the commencement of the year was $324,799 55—total $6,394,076. This sum includes $2,867,514 78 of surplus revenue of the United States. The expenditures during the same period were $4,173,940 26, of which $71,730 67 were for defraying the expenses of the convention to propose amendments to the constitution. The balance in the Treasury on the 1st of November last was $2,220,135 74.

GAMBLING, ARSON AND SWINDLING. The Westchester, (Pa.) Recorder gives the particulars of J. Clinton's attempt to burn his store in that place on the night of the 16th. Some persons passing, about midnight, discovered and put out the fire. Mr. C. appeared astonished when informed, and after examination declared that $650 had been stolen from the desk, &c. By some unfortunate mistake in his story, he was suspected, and it turns out that he held the money, and had insured the goods, which are really worth $20,000, in two offices, for four times their value. He is spoken of as a young man of good connexions, but had become involved by gambling. He is now in prison.

DISCONTINUANCE OF SUNDAY TRAVELLING IN ENGLAND. We learn from an English paper, that at a recent meeting of coach proprietors from all parts of England, held in London, it was very generally determined, to give up, as far as possible, the travelling of public coaches on the Sabbath. This measure was resolved upon, principally on the ground that it would be an actual saving to the proprietors, as there would be nearly the same number of passengers as at present, though spread over six days instead of seven, while many of the expenses would be diminished one seventh, and it would be a great relief to the horses. Several of the proprietors were also influenced in coming to this decision by religious considerations.

All the coaches between Leeds and London, (except the mails) have therefore discontinued starting from either end of their journey on Sunday; and it is the same with the Manchester, York, West of England coaches, and many others. The practice promises to become general throughout the country, and will tend materially to advance the cause of morality and religion, and will give the advantage of the Sabbath to thousands of coachmen, guards, stable-keepers, &c. Stage-coaches never travel on a Sunday in Scotland.

[Boston Merc. Journal.]

"When the wicked bear rule the people mourn, but when the righteous are in authority the people rejoice."

Our days of rejoicing for the blessings Heaven and man have vouchsafed to us in our recent triumphs have not yet passed away. The smile of gladness, the heartfelt thanksgiving, the outward expressions of joy still linger gladly among us, entering into all our pursuits, leaving, in strong characters, the marks of the many benefits conferred upon all classes of society, in consequence of a change of men and the promised change of measures in our National and State Administrations.

A splendid entertainment, almost surpassing in style and grandeur any thing of the kind we have ever seen, was served up last evening by the distinguished proprietors of the Astor House for about three hundred persons. Invited guests were present from several States including Mr. Webster, of Massachusetts, Mr. Bell, of Tennessee, Governor Pennington, S. L. Southard, Hon. Wm. H. Halstead, M. C. and others from New Jersey. Messrs Graves and Underwood, from Kentucky, Messrs Johnson and Kennedy of Maryland, Mr. Sturgis, of Massachusetts, Mr. George Curtis, of Rhode Island, Mr. Sibley, of New York, and many other distinguished men from different States and other sections of the country. The dining room, almost to the hour of day-dawn, was the scene of great rejoicings. The speeches were an intellectual feast, and that one, for lack of opportunity, can enjoy but once in a long life. The toasts were well timed and well put, and were responded to

CIRCULAR.

NOVEMBER 24, 1837

AT the last session of the Legislature, a petition was laid before that body for liberty to erect a dam or dams at Old Town and Pushaw falls with the object of improving the Penobscot river for the benefit of the Lumbering interest That petition was referred to the next session of the Legislature, and it is now proposed to take measures to carry that object into effect more fully than was at first contemplated The great accumulation of Mills on the river and the consequent increase of the lumbering business within the last few years, makes it evident that something must be done to improve the river and add to the facilities of moving logs from the boom and securing the same The peculiar location of the boom makes it necessary for all concerned to do something to obviate the difficulties which those now engaged in the lumber business have to encounter in moving their logs from the boom when the water is low after they are rafted out It is now proposed in addition to building dams at Old Town and Pushaw falls, to raise the water so as to move logs from the boom, and raft out of the same during the summer months to erect dams at the foot of the great lakes near the sources of the different tributaries of the river, thus creating great reservoirs of water, which can be discharged during the drought for the purpose of operating the mills and prosecuting the business connected therewith, which is now almost entirely suspended during that time

It is evident that dams erected as proposed would not only add to the supply of water in a drought, but materially diminish the height of the freshets by withholding a great quantity of the surplus water within the lakes The object proposed to be accomplished commends itself to the attention of all who make themselves acquainted with its operation.

A meeting will be held at Whitney's Tavern, at Lower Stillwater on MONDAY the 4th day of December next, at 2 o'clock for the purpose of taking measures to carry the object into effect, and all those who feel an interest in the improvement of the river, are requested to attend.

NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOK!

THE attention of School Committees, Teachers and Parents is invited to the examination of the "JUVENILE READER," a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which, revised and corrected, we have just published It is believed that the book is one which has been very much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities and long experience in his profession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly selected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereotyped is free from the danger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books
Those connected with schools or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it.

NEW-ENGLAND HOUSE,
BANGOR, MAINE

THE Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has removed from the Franklin House to the new and elegant house lately erected at the corner of Harlow and Franklin-streets, about six rods north of the Franklin House He tenders his sincere thanks to the public for their liberal patronage last year at the Franklin House, and solicits the continuation of it in his present situation, pledging himself to attend personally to the wants of those who may call on him, and employing none but good and faithful servants He will endeavor to make his house equal to any in this city The New England House is much larger than the Franklin House, which enables him to accommodate a much larger company than he could in his former situation There is a stable attached to the House, furnished with the best of hay and grain Ostlers equal to any in the State Also Horses and Carriages of all descriptions for the accommodation of those who may wish to hire A Carriage will always be in readiness to take passengers to and from the boat
N B Seats will be secured in all the lines of stages leaving this city.
